

Colonel Samuel B. Glover II

Colonel (COL) Samuel B. Glover II currently serves as the Military Deputy for Resource Management Directorate (G8) at the Army Material Command (AMC), at Redstone Arsenal, AL. The AMC is the Army's leading command for global sustainment and logistic operations executing a annual $40B budget. Through 28 years of active duty and reserve service, COL Glover has served in a variety of tactical, operational, and strategic military assignments.

COL Glover was commissioned as an Aviation Second Lieutenant with a Business Degree from South Carolina State University in 1995. After completion of the Officer's Basic Course and Initial Entry Rotary Wing training in 1997, he completed the UH-60 Aircraft Qualification Course (AQC). Upon completion of training at Ft. Rucker, he moved to K-16, Korea where he served as a platoon leader for Bravo Company, 1-52nd Aviation Regiment.

Following a unit move to 1-159th Aviation Regiment Ft. Bragg, NC, COL Glover served as the Battalion AS-3. He then deployed with the battalion to Bosnia-Herzegovina in support of Operation Joint Forge. After COL Glover's deployment, he returned to Ft. Bragg, NC as the Battalion S-2 and simultaneously completed his Masters of Business Administration Degree at Webster University in 2000. Next, he served as the HHC 1-212th Company Commander where he managed the two largest Army Heliports training over 2,000 students and as an instructor pilot received his Army Senior Aviator Badge flying over 1,500 hours.

COL Glover, in 2004, was selected as a System Evaluator for the procurement of new military systems and equipment at Aberdeen Proving Ground, MD. In 2005, he deployed in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom as an Operations Officer for Security Force Assistance Team Iraqi Transportation Battalion. Upon COL Glover's return, he finished his Doctor of Management Degree in Organizational Leadership from the University of Phoenix, AZ. Later, COL Glover was selected as an Army Comptroller, working his first job as a Resource Manager (RM) at the Army Improvised Explosive Device (IED) Division. Next in 2009, COL Glover was selected as a Congressional Fellow and later selected to work as a member of the Army Senate Liaison. As a member of Army Senate Liaison, he provided Defense and Budgetary expertise to members of Congress from New York to South Carolina (10 states). In 2012, COL Glover also served as the Task Force Dragon TAC Executive Officer and Ghazni Security Force Assistance Coordinator working with over 5,000 Afghanistan National Security Forces proving security to the Nation of Afghanistan. COL Glover completed duty as the 1st Cavalry Division Comptroller managing a budget of over $280M stateside and $480M overseas supporting units in Afghanistan, Germany, Africa, Korea, Cuba, Egypt, and numerous other locations. In May 2015, COL Glover and his section were selected as the Resource Manager and RM Team of the year (2014) for the United States Army. In June 2015, COL Glover was selected as the Joint Special Operations Command Comptroller managing its budget, while supporting exercises and training activities around the world. In June 2018, COL Glover completed the Eisenhower School War College with a Master's Degree in National Resourcing Strategy and a minor in Supply Chain Management. COL Glover served as Chief, Army Congressional Budget Liaison, aiding the Army in receiving over $182 billion funding and in the implementation of the Army Futures Command. Recently, COL Glover served as the Comptroller (G-8) for the Space and Missile Defense Command (SMDC), in charge of $1B budget addressing the Army's Missile Defense and Space Modernization Strategy, working with Army Future Command and Warfighters on latest technology.

COL Glover awards and decorations include Legion of Merit (3), Bronze Star Medal (3), Meritorious Service Medal (4), Combat Action Badge, Senior Aviator Badge, Space Badge and Parachutist Badge.

COL Glover is married to Dr. Denise L. Hamlin-Glover of Baltimore, Maryland. They are the proud parents of 18 year old son, Samuel B. Glover III and a 13 year old daughter, Autumn S. Glover.