

Bilal Razzaq

Director of Cybersecurity, Chief information Security Officer, AmeriCorps

Bilal Razzaq is the CISO and CPO at Americorps. He is responsible for the agency's information systems, data security, and privacy. Bilal oversees the development and implementation of the Americorps information security program. Bilal is a highly experienced security professional with a deep understanding of the latest security threats and vulnerabilities. He is a strong advocate for protecting personal information. Bilal holds a master's degree in Applied Information Technology from George Mason University.