

Francis Rose is an award-winning broadcaster, journalist, speaker, writer, and host of The Daily Scoop Podcast from the Scoop News Group. He also serves as SNG's Vice President of Multimedia Content. Before joining SNG, he hosted Government Matters on Washington, DC's ABC 7 and WJLA 24/7 News. He was the last live afternoon host on Federal News Radio, hosting "In Depth with Francis Rose" from 2008 to 2015 after joining the station in 2006. His guest list has included virtually every important name in the federal government. He has covered all three branches of the federal government as a broadcast journalist since 1998.

Francis is highly sought-after as a speaker and moderator of high-profile events in the federal community. His 30-year media career includes stops at America's leading broadcasters, including ABC Radio, CBS Radio, Westwood One, and C-SPAN.