

Nicole Willis is the Chief Technology Officer (CTO), for the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), Office of Inspector General (OIG), Office of the Chief Information Officer (OCIO). Currently, she leads the Zero Trust Roadmap, Multi-cloud Strategy, IT Portfolio Management, and IT Governance efforts for HHS OIG. Under Nicole's leadership, she has unified the strategic, operational needs, and Enterprise Architecture practices to enable business transformation and enhance product delivery. Her work moves OIG towards a modernized application portfolio that leverages emerging technology.

Before joining HHS OIG, Nicole was the Deputy Chief Enterprise Architect for the Department of Homeland IT portfolio. Nicole was honored to win a Federal 100 award in 2017 for her leadership in Information Technology. She holds a Master's in Information Technology, holds several IT management certifications and received her Bachelor of Business Administration from Fordham.