

Karim Fadel
Vice President
CGI Federal

As a CGI Vice President, Karim Fadel focuses on the future—where is the federal market headed and how can CGI support our clients along their journey? In his 27 years as a business growth leader, he has partnered to formulate innovative, forward-thinking solutions that transform government and commercial operations. With over 20 years in the GovCon industry, Karim’s experience spans strategy, business development, P&L, and business operations including leadership of Defense and Civilian captures exceeding $1.2B in value.